Sri T. Jeevan Reddy (Jagityala):- Sir, it was not correct procedure.

Mr. Speaker:- Mr. Jeevan Reddy, you were also a Cabinet Minister. You have introduced so many Bills. Let me clarify. Please do not interrupt. Let me clarify the position. Jeevan Reddy has raised one issue. Mr. Jeevan Reddy, you were a Cabinet Minister and you have introduced so many Bills.

(Interruptions)

I will tell you. Have patience to hear the Chair. You were in the Cabinet. Saying 'I beg to move that leave be granted to introduce the Bill' is, itself, seeking permission. I am sorry. You read it. Any Minister says like that only. The Deputy Speaker has permitted and he has introduced. [It is correct. Already the Deputy Speaker has announced that the Bill has been introduced. Permission has been given to introduce the Bill and it is introduced. There is no question of passing. Only introduction has been over.

(Interruptions)

I am sorry. Once the Minister says 'that leave be granted to introduce the Bill 'that itself, is seeking permission. If the Speaker does not like it he says it. When once the Speaker was silent it was over. It is on record. Jeevan Reddy, you were Minister and I was also Minister. The Minister seeks permission to introduce the Bill. The Minister says: 'I beg to move that leave be granted to introduce the Bill.'. If the Chair permits it, the Bill is introduced. In the same way the Bill has been introduced. If you want to discuss, you discuss on consideration of the Bill.

(Interruptions)

I am sorry. It is coming up for consideration. Why do you waste two days? Please take your seats. It is important for you.

Today, we have a lot of business to be transacted* The Bill has been introduced. It is on record. The Bill has been introduced and it is coming up for discussion. If you want to discuss it you discuss at the time of consideration of the Bill. Now, please resume your seats.

Mr. Speaker:- When Question No. 4719(M) tabled by Sri Asaduddin Owaisi relating to encroachment of lands belonging to Mazid-e-Deendar Khan, Sanga Reddy came up for answer on the floor of the House on 17th April, 1998 Sri T. Devendar Goud, Minister for Revenue informed the House that the Government disagreed with the recommendation of the House Committee on Wakf Lands not to treat the lands belonging to the above Mazid as wakf properties. Whereupon I have enquired the Minister why the Government did not intimate the House about its disagreement with the finding of the Committee* The Minister for Revenue assured that he would convey the views of the Government to the House shortly. At this juncture, several members asked me to give a ruling on the binding nature of the recommendations of the Committees of the Assembly.

Considering the importance and seriousness of the issue, I reserved my Ruling.

After going into the Constitutional position of the different organs of the State and after examining the Parliamentary practices and procedure obtaining on the implementation of the recommendation of the Committee I deliver my Ruling as under.

In the Parliamentary form of Government Legislature acknowledgedly is the most important limb and occupies a very pivotal position in the governance of the State. The business to be transacted by the modern legislature is very vast and extremely complex with varied dimensions especially with the advent of welfare State. Lack of specialisation and limited time led the Legislative Bodies for constituting Committees which is known as Mini-Legislatures to transact Business on behalf of the Legislature. The Committees are specialised structures of Legislative Bodies to which responsibilities are devolved to facilitate in-depth investigation. In short, Committees have become integral part of the Legislature, the nerve ends of Legislative Bodies and their eyes, ears and very often their brain. Accountability of administration to the Legislature to a great extent is ensured through the effective functioning of the Committees. The findings of the Committees on the failures, short-comings, omission and commissions of the administration will take the shape of observations/recommendations which are forwarded to the Government for corrective action and furnish compliance in due course to the House in the shape of action taken reports. Hence there is very little for me to dwell upon the primacy to be attached to the recommendations of the Committee.

Regarding the question whether the recommendations of the Committee are binding or not, let me tell you that the Government is bound normally to give effect to the recommendations of the Committee. However, in any particular situation.

if the Government holds a view different from the Committee and expressed its inability to comply with the same, they must appraise the House of the reasons that weighed with them in not implementing the recommendations* Even after presentation of the 'action taken report' to the House there is still room for the Committee to reconsider the matter again in the Light of the comments of the Government and submit a further report to the House, if it deems necessary whether or not to accept the version of the Government on any issue. In the instant case, I am told that there is some misunderstanding while assessing the evidence before formulating the finding. I am asking the Committee to reconsider the matter in the light of the report proposed to be sent by the Minister and reformulate its finding, if necessary. I am directing the Minister for Revenue to send the report forthwith.

I am also told there is a delay, indifference and non-compliance in the matter of furnishing action taken report by the Government on the recommendations of the statutory and Welfare Committees. So far as the House Committees are concerned, we have furnished more than 50 reports to the Government during VIII, IX and X Legislative Assemblies and not even a single action taken report was furnished to the House even though considerable time had elapsed. The essence of Parliamentary Government lies in the responsibility of the Government to the representative bodies and the question how far the recommendation of the Committee should be binding on the Government is crucial one. I am directing the Government to furnish action taken reports on the recommendations of the House Committee forthwith. I am also directing the Special Secretary to bring this to the notice of the concerned Secretaries to Government for compliance.

In future the Government should invariably furnish action taken reports to the House on all the reports of the Assembly including House Committee within a period of six months from the date of despatch of the report to them. It is needless for me to remind the Government about the consequences that may follow for non-compliance with the directions. Since the House Committee cease to function soonafter presentation of reports And since there is no mechanism to examine the action taken reports on the recommendations of such Committees, I propose to nominate a body of members or myself will review such reports in future.

On 21st of this month members hailing from Congress Benches staged a walk-out from the House protesting against the refusal to cancel the contract to L. & T. Company for the construction of t second Queue Complex at Tirumala. After the walkout to make the record straight the Chief Minister informed the House that global tenders were invited for the said work and out of them only the tender of L. & T. was fit for acceptance. He felt that the main opposition party was bent upon denigrating the Government day in and day out.

After returning to the House Sri Gade Venkata Reddy while raising on a point of order sought a ruling from the Chair whether speeches and comments were permitted to be made on the subject on which walk-out was staged when the members who staged walk-out wer& not in the House. Sri Ch. Rajeswara Rao participating in the debate requested the Chair to keep in mind while giving the ruling whether the demand of the Congress member who raised the point of order amounts to impinging upon the rights of the members who have not participated in the walk-out and remained in the House. Whereupon I agreed to examine the matter in detail and give my ruling thereon.

Let me tell you that walk-out is fir* time honoured legitimate parliamentary device designed to draw public attention. It is used to register the extreme dissatisfaction or disgust felt by the opposition about anything done or proposed to be done or refused to be acceded to by the Government. Since walk-out is an extreme measure it must be resorted to very sparingly and with a great sense of responsibility. If it is used too often or on trifling issues it is bound to lose its importance and efficacy and may cease to have much impact either on the Government or on the public. However, there is only one exception to this right i.e. no walk-out is permissible against the ruling of the Chair nor when the Speaker was on his legs.

వాకొటు వేసిన తరువాత ఆ అంశమును
 వాకొటు వేసిన సభ్యులు సభలో వేనప్పుడు
 3^^3otib&) K)6o3-

Coming to the point at issue, I may say if any allegation of a defamatory or incriminatory nature is made while staging walk-out the Minister or any other member affected has a right to rebut comment or elucidate on the insinuation made in the protest. The members who have staged walk-out have no right to prevent the members remained in the House to exercise their right to freedom of speech and expression.

I have verified the proceedings and found that the Chief Minister did not make any comment on the right of the members who staged a walk-out. However, he only tried to elucidate the point why there was no need to cancel the tenders of L. & T. Company. Every member of this House has an inherent right to protest subject to parliamentary practices, decency, decorum, etc.

I rule the Chief Minister did not make any comment on the right of the Congress members to stage walk-out. I also rule if any allegation of defamatory or incriminatory nature is made while staging walk-out the Chief Minister or Minister or any member affected by such statement has a right to comment, elucidate or explain to make the record straight.
